

WORTH INVESTIGATING.

The use of hand cream separators is very rapidly growing among farmers who milk cows for profit. Dairy men prefer to purchase the cream and be relieved of the work of separating, and it is much more profitable for the farmer to do his own separating, for he saves the skim milk on which he can raise his calves, in addition to which he saves the hauling of his milk, which alone amounts in many cases to the monthly payments required to buy a cream separator. The best time to separate the cream from the milk is while it is fresh and warm. The cream separates easier and a greater percentage is obtained, and the skim milk is left sweet and fresh to be fed to the calves.

The U. S. Cream Separator, sold by the Consolidated Wagon & Machine Company, has greatest capacity, skims the cleanest, works the easiest, and lasts the longest. Agents everywhere.

Abattoir for Horses.
It is reported that the consumption of horse meat in Neuremberg, where a few years ago it was quite insignificant, has now increased so greatly that the facilities for horse slaughtering at the municipal abattoir have become insufficient, and the city council has been obliged to consider the construction of a new abattoir for horses, the cost of which is estimated at $43,000.

Rare Church Treasure.
The little Roman church of Conques, lost in the mountains of Aveyron, is possessed of a treasure which was on view at the exhibition of 1900. It was of such marvelous beauty that a syndicate of art dealers offered for it the sum of 32,000,000 francs ($6,400,000). It contains the finest enameled in the world, reliquaries given by the early kings of France and Roman statues in gold and silver. Fortunately for France the art syndicate did not buy it.

THOUSANDS ARE KILLED BY POISONOUS MEATS

General Miles Tells Again the Story of the Embalmed Beef Scandal—Meats Made the Soldiers Sick.

Kansas City.—General Nelson A. Miles, in an interview here, said:

"The disclosures about beef and other packing house products now being exploited are no news to me. I knew it seven years ago. I told what I knew then. Had the matter been taken up at that time thousands of lives would have been saved. The adulteration of food products is the colossal crime of the times."

"I believe that 3,000 United States soldiers lost their lives because of adulterated, impure, poisonous meat. There is no way to estimate the number of soldiers whose health was ruined by eating impure food. I know only of its having among the soldiers and can only guess how many lives it has cost the republic."

"I have a barrel of testimony on the subject in the way of affidavits that I collected when I made my investigation seven years ago. The investigating committee closed the case and refused to hear 200 witnesses whom I had ready. At that time I could have secured the testimony of 100,000 men that the canned beef sold to the army was impure, adulterated and unwholesome."

"In my investigation of 'embalmed beef' during the Spanish-American war I found that poisons were being used to preserve meat. My first intimation of the practice came to me in reports from commanding officers to the effect that the rations were not wholesome and were making the soldiers sick. I ordered an investigation and learned from the reports brought to me that canned meat had been sold to the army that had been for months in the warehouses of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad and at the docks in Liverpool."

"This meat had been re-labeled and sold to the United States for soldiers' rations. I turned the reports over to the war department and a whitewashing investigation was instituted and successfully carried out. The official report was that a 'colossal error' had been made. As a matter of fact it was a colossal fraud, and the persons who perpetrated it were interested in it should have been sent to the penitentiary."

DISCUSS PACKING HOUSE SCANDAL

Secretary-Wilson and Special Agents Confer With President.

Washington.—President Roosevelt late Thursday consulted with Secretary Wilson of the department of agriculture and Senator Beveridge regarding the Beveridge amendment to the agricultural appropriation bill. Special Agents Reynolds and Commissioner of Labor Neill, who investigated the conditions at Chicago and other places for the president, and several of the subordinate officials of the department of agriculture, including Amonzo D. Melvin, chief of the bureau of animal industry, also were present. There was a very full and free discussion of the probable effect of the operations of the Beveridge amendment, but none of those present was willing to tell the details of the conference.

STOCKMEN WANT SQUARE DEAL

Sanitary Conditions at Packing Plants Should be Above Suspicion.

Chicago.—Representations that the stockmen of the northwest oppose the bill now before congress extending government inspection over domestic and export meats, on the ground that a more rigid inspection law would mean a great loss to the cattlemen, are repudiated by J. J. Ryan of Fort Dodge, Ia., secretary of the Corn Belt Meat Producers' association, and Murdoch MacKenzie, president of the American National Stock Growers' association.

"More rigid government inspection will increase our export trade," declared Mr. Ryan here. "We manufacture the best quality of meats in the world and we should have no suspicion cast on the sanitary condition of our packing plants or that diseased animals are used. Such suspicions have already cost us much."

CHICAGO INTERESTED.

Will Investigate Conditions at the Stock Yards.

Chicago.—The city has decided to appoint a commission to investigate conditions at the stock yards with a view to determining how far the recent customs of methods employed in the killing of beef and hogs is justified. Mayor Dunne, after a conference with Health Commissioner Whalen, decided to ask the co-operation of the federal government and the authorities will be asked to name several members of the commission.

Packers Don't Want Inspection.

Washington.—No application to be heard on the Beveridge beef inspection amendment has been made to the house committee on agriculture by the packers, and no meeting of the committee has been called to consider this or other amendments to the agricultural appropriation bill. Members of the house, however, are receiving protests by wire against the inspection amendments from the cattle raisers, and it has been suggested that the packers are opposing the proposition they are working through the cattle raisers.

Cruel General Marked for Death.

Borjon, Trans-Caucasia.—An attempt was made on the life of General Alikhanoff, governor general of Kutais, as he was about to take a train for Tiflis. The general arrived at the station surrounded by an escort of Cossacks, when two bombs were thrown at him and exploded in the midst of the party, seriously wounding Alikhanoff, a member of his staff and several Cossacks. The remainder of the Cossacks fired indiscriminately into the crowd, killing many persons.

Keep the Kidneys Well and the Kidneys Will Keep You Well.
Sick, suffering, languid women are learning the true cause of bad backs and how to cure them.

Mrs. W. G. Davis, of Groesbeck, Texas, says: "Back-aches hurt me so I could hardly stand. Spells of dizziness and sick headache were frequent and the action of the kidneys was irregular. Soon after I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills I passed several gravel stones. I got well and the trouble has not returned. My back is good and strong and my general health better."

THEN HE FELT STREAKED.

Hubby Was Too Obliging When There Wasn't Any Occasion for It.

A gentleman and his wife were sitting in one of the front rows in a theater. On the floor the man saw a large bat-pin with an amber head. The Chicago Daily News tells what he did with it.

Looking about him, he saw that two women and their escorts had just sat down. To one of the women he presented the pin. A shake of the head indicated that he had made a mistake. Then he tried two ladies across the aisle. They seemed to be interested. The pin was a curiosity, and its amber of a unique carving. They hesitated, but handed the pin back.

Desperately, he began the search anew. Two ladies unattended seemed likely owners. To them also he showed the pin. They took it and enjoyed its pattern.

Just then the man felt a tug on his sleeve. It was his wife, and she remarked, "Why are you showing my hat-pin to strangers?"

Blushing, he went over to the ladies, who were still looking at the pin, and explained.

"It's my wife's pin," he said, but in such consciously guilty accents that the women handed it back with doubtful smiles.

PADEREWSKI'S BELLBOY.

Masterly Youth Made a Hit with the Great Pianist by Playing His "Minuet."

Rosamond Johnson, of Cole & Johnson, composers of that once popular song, "Under the Bamboo Tree," once held a position as bellboy in Young's hotel in Boston. This place, says Success Magazine, he once nearly lost, through taking the liberty of playing Paderewski's "Minuet" for the great pianist. Paderewski, who was staying at that hotel, had rung for a bellboy, and young Johnson answered the call.

Being so fond of music, he made bold to ask the great composer and pianist to play the "Minuet" for him. Paderewski could not understand English then, and the boy thought from his gesticulations that he wished him to play it. So he sat down at the piano and commenced playing. Paderewski's manager happened to enter the room just then, and, enraged at the bellboy's presumption, threw him out of the room and went directly to the management and had him discharged.

As soon as he learned what had been done, Paderewski, who had been pleased with the lad's playing, sent for the manager of the hotel and had Johnson reinstated in his position.

KNIFE.

Coffee Knife an Old Soldier.

An old soldier, released from coffee at 72, recovered his health and tells about it as follows:

"I stuck to coffee for years, although it knifed me again and again. About eight years ago (as a result of coffee drinking which congested my liver), I was taken with a very severe attack of malarial fever."

"I would apparently recover and start about my usual work only to suffer a relapse. After this had been repeated several times during the year I was again taken violently ill."

"The doctor said he had carefully studied my case, and it was either quit coffee or die, advising me to take Postum in its place. I had always thought coffee one of my dearest friends, and especially when sick, and I was very much taken back by the doctor's decision, for I hadn't suspected the coffee I drank could possibly cause my trouble."

I thought it over for a few minutes, and finally told the doctor I would make the change. Postum was procured for me the same day and made according to directions; well, I liked it and stuck to it, and since then I have been a new man. The change in health began in a few days and surprised me, and now, although I am seventy-two years of age, I do lots of hard work, and for the past month have been teaming, driving sixteen miles a day besides loading and unloading the wagon. That's what Postum in the place of coffee has done for me. I now like the Postum as well as I did coffee."

"I have known people who did not care for Postum at first, but after having learned to make it properly according to directions they have come to like it as well as coffee. I never miss a chance to praise it." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Look for the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

BOMB THROWER TAKES HIS LIFE

Before Shooting Himself, the Assassin Killed Guard Who Tried to Arrest Him

Man Who Attempted to Kill King and Queen of Spain, and Who Was Responsible for Mourning in Many Homes, Is Dead.

Madrid, June 3.—The capture and suicide at Torrejon de Ardos, midway between Madrid and Aloia. A guard sought to detain him, but Morales, drawing a revolver, shot the guard dead. Then he turned to flee, but a number of the inhabitants of the town were upon him, and, turning the revolver upon himself, he shot a bullet in the region of his heart, expiring a few minutes later. Senor Cuesta, proprietor of the hotel from the balcony of which Morales threw the bomb, viewed the body and completely identified it as that of his recent guest.

SPANIARDS IN THEIR GLORY.

Royal Wedding Festivities Wind Up With Bull Fight.

Madrid.—The royal bull fight Saturday afternoon was the climax of the spectacular magnificence attendant on the marriage of King Alfonso.

For the time being Madrid forgot the horrors of the attempt on the lives of the royal couple, and the brilliancy of this national pastime. It was feared that the event would give another opportunity for outbreak, but everything passed off auspiciously, King Alfonso and Queen Victoria being continuously the recipients of enthusiastic popular ovations.

Eight bulls were despatched, four by cavaliers mounted on horseback, who were chosen from the first families of Spain, with the Duke of Medina Coeli, the Duke of Alba and the Marquis of Tobar as their patrons. There were at least 60,000 people present at the fight.

DISFIGURING SKIN HUMOR.

Impossible to Get Employment, as Face and Body Were Covered with Sores—Cured by Cuticura.

"Since the year 1894 I have been troubled with a very bad case of eczema which I have spent hundreds of dollars trying to cure, and I went to the hospital, but they failed to cure me, and it was getting worse all the time. Five weeks ago my wife bought a box of Cuticura Ointment and one cake of Cuticura Soap, and I am pleased to say that I am now completely cured and well. It was impossible for me to get employment, as my face, head and body were covered with it. The eczema first appeared on the top of my head, and it had worked all the way around down the back of my neck and around to my throat, down my body and around the hips. It itched so I would be obliged to scratch it, and the flesh was raw. I am now all well, and I will be pleased to recommend the Cuticura Remedies to all persons who wish a speedy and permanent cure of skin diseases." Thomas M. Roslister, 290 Prospect Street, East Orange, N. J. Mar. 30, 1905.

A CRITICAL PERIOD

INTELLIGENT WOMEN PREPARE

Dangers and Pain of This Critical Period Avoided by the Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many women realize that the most critical period in a woman's existence is the change of life, and that the anxiety felt by women at this time draws near is not without reason?

At this time, also, cancers and tumors are more liable to begin their destructive work. Such warning symptoms as a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, dizziness, headache, dread of impending evil, sounds in the ears, timidity, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period of life when woman's great change may be expected.

We believe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the world's greatest remedy for women at this trying period.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound invigorates and strengthens the female organism, and builds up the weakened nervous system as no other medicine can.

Mrs. A. E. G. Hyland, of Chester-town, Md., in a letter to Mrs. Pinkham, says:

"I had been suffering with a displacement for years and was passing through the change of life. I had a good deal of nervousness, dizziness, headache, and was very nervous. I wrote you for advice and commenced treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as you directed, and I am happy to say that these distressing symptoms have been relieved, and I have passed safely through the change of life a well woman."

For special advice regarding this important period women are invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. She is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty years has been advising sick women free of charge. Her advice is free and always helpful to ailing women.
